

LIZ SWAIN

Liz is an established and versatile vocalist, choral leader, and soloist, known for her passionate and forward-thinking approach. She has performed with such artists as The Swingles, Bobby McFerrin, Sam Smith, Ellie Goulding, New York Voices, and London Voices. She has appeared at international venues and events including the Montreux and London Jazz Festivals, La Scala Milan, and the Proms. She is also a regular session singer on film and television.

Liz is dedicated to expanding choral education, innovation and participation in the UK. She runs singing projects and programmes in state schools in West London and teaches voice at The Guildhall School of Music and Drama and Kingston University. She is also a Trustee of national musical charity The Choir With No Name. As founder and director of London's contemporary XL vocal group SOUND, Liz remains committed to creating opportunities for vocalists, and pushing the creative boundaries of vocal music.
